

BIG SOCIETY TEA FOR CIVIC WORK TO-DAY.

Woman's Municipal League
Will Give Musical Rally
in Waldorf.

Five thousand persons are expected at the musical tea of the Woman's Municipal League in the Waldorf-Astoria this afternoon, when the receipts will go to swell the treasury of an organization unique for its civic work. Under Mrs. Richard Aldrich, the President, the league has gathered society women into its ranks and induced a neighborhood interest so practical and thorough that they are learning their city's needs and lacks through the basic details.

The tea will be a splendid social show, but behind it and before it lies municipal accomplishment.

Mrs. Frederick Longfellow, one of the charter members of the league, has a clever design for the decoration of the Bronx candy table, of which she is chairman. Painted in water color by Miss Dora Lesley, of Spouten Duvill-on-Hudson, is the Bronx coat of arms—a blue sea with a setting sun, over which floats the world, supporting the American eagle. This gives the blue and buff colors of Jonas Bronck, the first settler, who was of Dutch and Swedish extraction, and suggests the Colonial colors.

Her assistants are Mrs. Duncan Emmet, Miss Margie P. Deland, Mrs. A. C. Plisk, Miss Frances L. Hobbie, Miss Dora Lesley, Miss Leah Anderson, Miss L. G. Carbonell and Mrs. Frederick Allen. Mrs. Ronald Stuart will preside over the Manhattan table, and her assistants are Mrs. Emerson McMillan, Mrs. John Temple Graves, Mrs. L. N. Van Korbelen, Mrs. Mace Moulton, Mrs. Henry Doscher, Mrs. William Stuart Emery, Mrs. Carmen Harriot, Mrs. Josephine Lester, Mrs. Louise Wood, Miss Adelaide Palmer, Miss Elizabeth MacDermott, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Julia Tuttle, Miss Mary Goodrum, Miss Nell Forbes, Miss Adeline Ferris, Miss Marguerite Marx and Miss Gladys Washington.
